GREENVILLE.

Greenville, Texas, April 17.—Sunday was a beautiful day and all of the churches report good service. The leading men of the city will organize a Merchants' business soon. Next Wednesday will be opening day of an up-to-date drug store to be operated by Dr. L. W. Taylor and Mr. M. S. Durham. These men are to be congratulated for this splendid business undertaking. Mrs. Mary Durham, the widow of the late W. H. Durham, has returned from Com. where she went to visit her daughter. Mother Julia Williams, accompanied her, both report a nice time. The New Jerusalem Baptist church, under the leadership of Pastor E. E. Strong, raised last Sunday $118.00. Mrs. Adel Kide, and little son, A. W., are visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Moriah Kidd of Clarksville. Rev. A. L. Wright, B. D., the popular pastor of New Hope Baptist church, is here on a tour of the First Baptist church of Wichita Falls, Texas. Rev. Wright is quite a Christian gentleman and a strong gospel preacher, and Greenville needs him. Mrs. Frances Gunning, of Sherman, is spending a few days with her cousin, Mrs. Lela S. Bryant. Rev. B. T. Trammel, pastor of Wesley C. M. E. church is leading his forces on to victory. Mr. R. F. Tave, who has been ill so long is now able to be out again. The order of Eastern Stars had their annual Thanksgiving service Sunday night at the Baptist chapel. M. E. church. Rev. A. F. Johnson spoke for them. Mrs. Bettie Copeland, the mother of Mrs. M. S. Atkinson, is quite sick at this writing. Mr. Wm. Radle was called to Mineola, to attend the funeral of his sister and two nephews, who were killed in the storm last Tuesday night. He has the sympathy of his many friends. Mr. Willie Corley, who came home sick from Little Rock, Ark., is up now. Mr. A. B. Culbertson is now undertaker and funeral director for Mrs. A. D. Key. Mrs. Sallie Owens, who has been visiting her sons in Chicago is at home again.

Save 5 cents for the Express. Dr. L. W. Taylor, has added three new rooms to his beautiful home at a cost of one thousand dollars. It is now well assured that the doctor has one among the best homes in the city. Deaconess R. Simpson, left Tuesday morning for Sulphur Springs and will spend the week with Rev. Fountain, Elder L. H. Crawford made a business trip to Dallas last week. Mrs. M. E. Harris has closed her school and is now at home. Rev. A. F. Johnson made a flying trip to Sulphur Springs last week in the interest of the Centenary. We are glad to note that Mr. Emmett Hines is able to be at work again after several weeks' illness. There will be an Express here for you, and you must read it.
